What water bodies does the Case Clinic focus on?

The Indus River system comprised of six main rivers: the Indus and its five tributaries: Jhelum, Chenab, Beas, Ravi and Sutlej.

What countries or actors are directly impacted by the case?

India and Pakistan.

What is one among many challenges to discuss?

The geopolitical environment in South Asia and deep mistrust between the two neighbours have resulted in several wars. South Asia remains the least integrated region in the world.

What would be one among many opportunities that results from this case?

The Indus Water Treaty as a transnational regime can serve as a template for cooperation between India and Pakistan in multiple problems and issues which occur due to their shared colonial history and focus on sovereign territoriality.
